

Curriculum Vitae

Talia Fenoglietto, D.C.

225 South Franklin St.
Holbrook, MA 02343
781-767-5555

Education

Chiropractic

10/2004-
12/2007      Doctor of Chiropractic, *Magna Cum Laude
Palmer College of Chiropractic Florida, Port Orange, Florida

Undergraduate

10/2000-
05/2004      Bachelor of Science in Exercise Physiology, *Cum Laude
West Virginia University, Morgantown, West Virginia

Professional Experience

03/2008-
Present      New England Spine Institute, Holbrook, Massachusetts
Chiropractic Physician. Participate in a health care practice focused on the diagnosis and conservative management of musculoskeletal disorders. Responsible for educational lectures and in-service programs presented to the surrounding patient and medical community regarding services available and clinical conditions that are appropriate for chiropractic care. Corporate President is Matthew H. Kowalski, DC.

Clinical Internships

10/2007-
12/2007      Rhode Island Spine Center, Pawtucket, Rhode Island
Chiropractic Intern. Observed and consulted on diagnosis and conservative management strategies of musculoskeletal disorders. Responsibilities included performing new patient histories, vital signs, and neurological examinations. Participated in data collection for research related to pregnancy related back pain and lumbar herniated nucleus pulposus. Observed medical physicians in the community and in hospital settings such as neurosurgeons, orthopedic physicians, and anesthesiologists. Clinical rotation directed by Donald Murphy, DC.

10/2006-
10/2007      Palmer College of Chiropractic Chiropractic Clinic, Port Orange, Florida
Chiropractic Intern. Performed histories, examinations, special studies, and chiropractic treatment to patients in the community with the guidance of faculty clinicians. Clinical director was Albert Luce, DC.

07/2007-
10/2007      Palmer College of Chiropractic Chiropractic Clinic, Port Orange, Florida
Clinical Teaching Assistant. As directed by faculty clinicians, supervised and assisted student interns in their performance of physical examinations, chiropractic analysis, developing appropriate clinical impressions and care plans, and proper patient record keeping. Advisor was Kenice Morehouse, DC.

01/2004-
05/2004 West Virginia University Centers for Disease Control and Prevention
Student Intern. Assisted in developing a culturally-sensitive, family based-health promotion program for preschool children and their families. The project was conducted in Headstart centers and public pre-school settings in four rural West Virginia Counties. Agency: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention. Advisor was Carole Harris, Ph.D.

Certifications

03/2007 Licensed Chiropractic Physician: Massachusetts # 3182
02/2007 Licensed Chiropractic Physician: Rhode Island # 00565
12/2007 National Board of Chiropractic Examiners Licensing Exam: Parts I, II, III, IV and Physiotherapy completed.
04/2008 Graston Technique®: Instrument Assisted Soft Tissue Mobilization: Module I, II
03/ 2007 CPR/ First Aid Certification

Professional Memberships

03/2008-
Present American Chiropractic Association

Committees and Activities

03/2008 Key Rehabilitation Strategies of the Lumbar Spine
National University of Health Sciences Continuing Education
Instructor: Gary Jacob, DC.

02/2008 Key Rehabilitation Strategies for the Cervical Spine
National University of Health Sciences Continuing Education
Instructor: Gary Jacob, DC.

06/2007 Palmer College of Chiropractic Clinic Abroad Program
Student clinician. Participated in a short term clinical education opportunity for senior-level students. Teams of faculty, field doctors, and students from all three Palmer campuses traveled together to Fiji to provide chiropractic care to underserved populations.

10/2007 Palmer College of Chiropractic Clinic Improvement Advisory Board
Student representative. Class representative to College of Chiropractic Clinical Director, Albert Luce, DC. Participated in weekly focus group meetings directed at improving policies and procedures of the Palmer Florida outpatient and outreach clinics.